EAST LONDON'S HIDDEN GEM

Wanstead Park is a joy for a multitude of users. A welcome, year-round and peaceful retreat for walkers, joggers and dog owners. A respite from the noise and bustle of London.

Equally beautiful in all seasons, whether the bluebell wood, the colourful summer grasses, or the ice on the lakes, it remains a surprising natural habitat for all to enjoy.

A perfect family picnic spot and safe haven for children, a space for theatre and music, bird watching or a magical event at the historic Temple, a place for taking time and relaxing.

The Friends of Wanstead Parklands provide a strong lobbying group, run events, fund improvements, publish books and DVDs, raise awareness of the park on social media, pick litter and much more.

Once the site of one of England's grandest houses and most famous gardens, Wanstead Park preserves its 300-year-old chain of lakes and other elements of the Georgian landscape.

Now a much-loved local amenity...

...and haven for nature

OUR VISION FOR WANSTEAD PARK

Wanstead Park is a Grade II* listed landscape considered "At Risk" by Historic England. The Friends of Wanstead Parklands have a vision: to restore the park's natural beauty and heritage features, as well as enhancing access, recreation and ecological value.

The Friends have been working for a decade with the Corporation of London and other stakeholders to develop a long-term restoration and management plan for Wanstead Park.

A key joint aim is to seek grant funding from the National Lottery Heritage Fund (NLHF). The "Parkland Plan" has been designed with one or more such applications in mind. It includes the following objectives -

- Restoration of the lake system and maintaining water levels.
- Improvements to paths throughout the Park.
- A new Visitor Centre hub to include displays, interpretation and visitor facilities.
- Natural play facilities for children.
- Appropriate signage to the park from surrounding communities and transport hubs.
- The conservation and restoration of the Grotto.
- The opening up of historic views and vistas.
- Better signed and more welcoming entrances.
- More active management of the park's woods, avenues and grasslands.
- Interpretation of the historic features of the park.
- An Events programme to engage visitors and enliven their experience.

Regular visitors will have noticed that important progress is already being made on some of these objectives, even before the "big project" is finalised.
